RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Applications must be submitted by 4:00 PM on Friday August 2, 2024, to ensure that your hay bale is ordered and reserved.
2. You will be notified of your application status on or before 4:00 PM on Friday, August 16, 2024.
3. Entrants MUST submit a photo or sketch of the design idea. The design must be approved.
4. One hay bale will be provided to entrants at no cost. Additional hay bales can be purchased from us at cost ($40 per bale) or can be purchased and delivered from other suppliers.
5. Requests for additional hay bales must be submitted by Monday, September 9, 2024, to ensure the bale(s) arrive to your bale location in time for decorating.
6. Hay bale decorations must be in good condition, clean and wholesome. No vulgar or suggestive decorations are permitted.
7. Paper is not allowed to be used for the main features of the hay bale due to lack of sustainability in various weather conditions. Cardboard MUST be reinforced to withstand the weather.
8. If your hay bale begins to fall apart at any point from mid-October through November 8th, you will be notified to come and make any repairs and dispose of any debris created. If your hay bale cannot be repaired or is neglected, we reserve the right to remove it from the trail.
9. Hay bales will be numbered, and entrants will be assigned a specific number.
10. No decorating is allowed before the designated decorating dates.
11. Hay Bale tear down may take place between November 1-8, 2024.
12. All decorations must be picked up by Friday, November 8, 2024. We will dispose of hay bales.
13. Political Signage is prohibited, Commercial/Business signs are allowed.
14. Voting for the "Best Overall" hay bale will take place via google form. The link will be shared on The City of Madisonville's Facebook and Website. There will be a QR Code on the numbered Hay Bale Signs.
15. Voting will end on October 11, 2024. The winner will be announced via Facebook and contacted by October 18, 2024.
